Welcome to Blue Ridge!

We're excited to meet you.

Dear Valued Customer,

As you may know, Adams Cable Service is now officially part of Blue Ridge Communications. Based in Northeast Pennsylvania, Blue Ridge is a locally-owned service provider with the same family values that you've come to rely on—reliable service, friendly support, and treating people right, since 1951.

We're dedicated to making this transition in November as simple as possible for you. For now, just sit back, relax, and enjoy our Blue Ridge Welcome Guide enclosed in this package. You'll get to know Blue Ridge a bit better and hopefully start to feel at home with us.

We're excited to continue providing you and your community with reliable and affordable internet, TV, phone, and mobile services. Please check your mailbox in the upcoming weeks as we will continue to send you important information. We look forward to keeping you connected to all the things you love and depend on.

Warm regards,

The team at Blue Ridge
